The meaning of power; Congratulations to our First Communicants; prayers for our ordinandi

Dear friends,

In our first reading, just before Jesus ascends to his Father in heaven, he says to them:

“You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

What does Jesus mean by the power (in Greek, dynamis) of God?

We might think of power in a physical sense: physical strength; electrical power; horsepower. We might think of political power: the authority to direct the course of a community, or even a nation. We might think of economic power: the potential to acquire things, property, the material comforts and security of life. We might think of power in a military sense: the ability to overcome those who would bring harm upon one’s nation.

What about the power of God? The power from on high that Jesus promises his apostles; the power that comes from the Holy Spirit?

When we look at the way the word power (dynamis) is used by St. Luke, we see some fascinating common threads:

John the Baptist

But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer is heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth; for he will be great before the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. And he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God, and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared.

Mary

And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there will be no end." And Mary said to the angel, "How shall this be, since I have no husband?" And the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.

A paralyzed man

On one of those days, as he was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was with him to heal. And behold, men were bringing on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they sought to bring him in and lay him before Jesus; but finding no way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only?" When Jesus perceived their questionings, he answered them, "Why do you question in your hearts? Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the man who was paralyzed—"I say to you, rise, take up your bed and go home." And immediately he rose before them, and took up that on which he lay, and went home, glorifying God.

Casting out demons

And in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, "Ah! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm. And they were all amazed and said to one another, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out."

A woman with hemorrhage

And a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years and could not be healed by anyone, came up behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her flow of blood ceased. And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the multitudes surround you and press upon you!" But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I perceive that power has gone forth from me." And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."

The mission of the Twelve

And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal.

Thus, from these passages in the Gospel of Luke, the word power has these shades of meaning:

- To bring new life (as in the message of the angel to Mary)
- To proclaim the word of God; to bring conversion and change of heart (for the better)
- To heal; to restore
- To cast out evil

In short:

To bring about what was always meant to be; to abide with God, in fullness of life.

The power promised by Jesus to the apostles at the coming of the Holy Spirit has clear echoes of the coming of the Holy Spirit upon Mary.

At the end of the Gospel of Luke, Jesus declares to his disciples: "And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high." At the beginning of the Gospel of Luke, Mary—the first and best disciple of Jesus—is told, "the Holy Spirit will come upon you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you."

Compare these two scenes: the blessing of God, the power of the Most High, is promised to be given to the beloved disciples. The disciples will be clothed with this power; the Holy Spirit will overshadow, permeate them.

The response is an echo of joy: Shortly after the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Mary, she hurries to visit her kinswoman Elizabeth, and Mary sings her song of praise in the presence of Elizabeth after John leaps for joy in Elizabeth's womb. Mary's spirit rejoices in God, her Savior. Her soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord. So also with the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples at Pentecost: Even though their beloved Jesus has ascended, and has been lifted away from their sight, they return to Jerusalem with great joy, and were always in the Temple, praising God.

In Acts 1:14, Mary is described as being with the apostles in the Upper Room in Jerusalem, joined in continuous prayer with them. She knew what it was to be overshadowed with the Most High, and she was praying for the same gift—and joyful echo of response—for them.

This is also so for us.

In these days between the Ascension and Pentecost, we too can look forward in hope to the power of God overshadowing us:

A power that casts out evil,
A power that helps us turn more confidently toward God and away from what falls short of him,
A power that heals us,
A power that renews us,
A power that abides in us, helps us to become the person we were created to be,
A power that opens the way for us to abide with God in friendship forever.

This power is the Holy Spirit of God.

We can pray to the Holy Spirit to bring about this kind of power in us:

Holy and divine Spirit! Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, your spouse, bring the fullness of Your gifts into our hearts. Comforted and strengthened by You, may we live according to Your Will and may we die praising Your infinite mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* * *

Please join me in offering joyful congratulations to our young people who made their First Holy Communion on May 11!

May their excitement and joy remind us all not only of the joy of our own first reception of Holy Communion, but also of the deep importance of this regular connection in friendship to Jesus, the Vine, who from the depths of his heart longs to give us his very life in this sacrament, so that we can bear fruit and give glory to his Father by extending that life and divine love to others.

* * *

Please also join in prayer for our two young men who are preparing for ordination to the priesthood this coming Saturday, May 18, Deacon Tyler Carter and Deacon Michael Haemmerle. May their priesthood be a source of divine life and salvation for many souls, and may they receive the power of the Holy Spirit of God promised by Jesus to the apostles: a power that delivers us from evil, restores us to the life that God desires for us, and turns our hearts confidently to our loving Father, so that we can abide in friendship with God forever.

Peace,

Fr. Stephen Alcott, O.P.

The background of the poster is a reproduction of the painting 'The Descent of the Holy Spirit' by Giovanni Lanfranco. It depicts the Holy Spirit as a white dove descending upon the Virgin Mary and the Apostles. The scene is filled with numerous figures, including the Virgin Mary in a blue mantle, the Apostles in various poses of prayer and awe, and a large crowd of people in the background. The sky is filled with cherubs and clouds. The entire scene is set against a dark, dramatic background.

We need your help

To train Champions for Christ

Please, consider supporting our VBS program by donating some of the items we need: for decorating the Hall and for the children's activities. Please, scan the code below to access our Amazon Wish List or use the link: <https://a.co/88FIGuT>

Have the ordered items sent to:

St. Patrick Church
280 N Grant Ave.
Columbus, OH 43215

Other forms of donations welcome, too. 😊
(Amazon or Donatos gift cards, cash, checks, online donations)

Thank you for your generosity!

Sr. Leonarda, OP and the VBS Core Team

JUNE 23-28, 2024 | Justice, Illinois
A WEEK-LONG DISCERNMENT RETREAT

For single, Catholic, women ages 18-35 who are discerning a call to religious life.

- To listen to the voice of Christ.
- To ponder what Christ might be asking of you.
- To have the opportunity to see how Sisters live.
- To have the chance to recreate with Sisters and with other young women on retreat.
- Opportunity for daily Mass, daily Adoration, daily Liturgy of the Hours and to be spiritually rejuvenated!

DIAPER BANK

Helping single mothers provide diapers for their children

Why Diapers Matter

- It's 2 U.S. families enough to buy diapers for their children.
- Diapers can cost $70-$80 per month.
- The average baby needs 6-10 diapers per day.
