Dominican Friars

BULLETIN DEADLINE: Please submit bulletin items a minimum of one week in advance of publication to office@stpatrikcolumbus.org.

From the Desk of the Pastor

Today is Rosary Sunday, as we enter into the month of the Rosary. As is our custom on this first Sunday of October, the friars will be distributing blessed roses at the end of all Masses this weekend. After the Noon Mass, we will have our Rosary Sunday Procession, followed by a Solemn Enrollment in the Rosary Confraternity. If you haven't been enrolled in the Rosary Confraternity, I encourage you to do so! The only requirements are that members pray 15 decades of the Rosary each week, remembering the intentions of the other Confraternity members. Those who join share in the good works of the Dominican Order. You can also join our parish Rosary Confraternity, which leads the Rosary on weekends, and meets on the third Thursday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in Kolbe Classroom.

For this year, our Rosary Sunday celebrations will extend another day, when we commemorate World Rosary Day on Monday, October 7th. Our Holy Father Pope Francis has asked that Catholics pray the Rosary on this day (which is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary) at 7:00 p.m., wherever you are, as a means of preparation for the upcoming Jubilee Year. Here at St. Patrick's, we will have a special time of Adoration and Confessions starting at 6:30 p.m., with the Rosary starting at 7:00 p.m. Father Stephen Dominic Hayes, O.P., the prior of the local Dominican community, will be delivering short reflections on the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary at the beginning of each decade. After Benediction, the Dominican friars and sisters will lead the people in the Dominican Salve Regina Procession from the church to the Gallery. You don't want to miss this special event!

In closing, I must report to the parish some important news regarding our parish staff. In April, we were blessed to have Lizbeth Fernandez join us as our new Office Manager and Secretary, succeeding Susan Livingston after her 42 years of service. Many of you have had a chance to meet Liz in the office or talk to her on the phone. Sadly, Liz had to step away from this new job to care for her mother, who had been ill, and then passed away last Sunday. We pray for Liz and her family during this difficult moment, and for the repose of her mother's soul. Please pray for our parish as we seek to hire a new Parish Secretary.

God bless you,

Fr. Paul, O.P.

ROSARY SUNDAY

October 6, 2024

Blessed roses will be distributed by the friars after all Masses.

The Rosary Procession will follow the 12 Noon Mass.

A Solemn Enrollment Ceremony in the Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary will follow the Procession.

EXPANDING ADORATION AT ST. PATRICK'S

Are you interested in expanding our hours of Eucharistic Adoration at St. Patrick's? We've heard from many that interest is high! We're seriously considering adding Eucharistic Adoration every Tuesday, beginning after the 11:45 a.m. Mass, concluding at 8:00 p.m., and we are looking for a start date to coincide with the beginning of Advent, the season of waiting and expectation for the Nativity of Our Lord. If you are interested in signing up for a regular committed hour, please contact Steve and Amy Zehala (contact information below). We will be working with a web-based program and app, Ministry Scheduler Pro (MSP), which many of our parish ministries already use. You will be able to sign up for a regular hourly time period, or substitute as needed. For more information or to sign up for a weekly hour of Adoration, please contact Amy by text at 330-717-0367, Steve by text at 614-274-5000, or both by email at sjamz830@gmail.com, and let them know if you are interested in coming to adore our Eucharistic Lord!

LIVE-STREAMING AT ST. PATRICK’S: A TIME TO SCALE BACK

Since 2016, St. Patrick Church has been equipped with video capabilities through BoxCast, allowing us to live-stream Masses in the Church and lectures in Aquinas Hall. This also allowed us to make Aquinas Hall a “cry room” for weekend Masses, since the Masses could be simulcast from the Church on the television in the hall. Live-streaming has allowed our parish to build a presence on the web, while reaching out to parishioners who are homebound, as well as providing our catechetical presentations to those who could not attend in person. The parish was prepared when the unexpected happened in 2020, and the pandemic caused everything to go remote, from our experience of Mass to lectures and presentations. Watching a live-streamed Mass became a common thing, but it was never meant to be regular or permanent.

The Sunday and holy day Mass obligation was suspended in the dioceses of Ohio from March 2020 – June 2021. While live-streamed Masses allowed Catholics to watch Mass during the pandemic, and unite their prayers with the offering of the Lord’s holy sacrifice, there was no obligation to watch these live-streamed Masses; these were a way to feel connected to the Mass while stay-at-home orders were in place. The Sunday and holy day obligation has been reinstated for over three years, though if a person is sick, he or she is not obligated to go to Mass that day. Mass can be missed for a just cause (such as illness, caring for one who is ill, or the recovery time after childbirth or surgery, to name a few examples). This was the case before the pandemic, and remains the case today. However, live-streamed Masses are never intended to take the place of coming to Mass in person and worshipping the One, True, God through the sacrifice of His Son, re-presented on our altars in the holy Eucharist. Furthermore, missing Mass for unjust causes (such as travel, work, or personal neglect) cannot be remedied simply by watching a live-streamed or pre-recorded Mass.

Because technologies like BoxCast allowed parishes to stream many events easily and efficiently, it became possible to continue live-streaming once the pandemic had largely subsided. At St. Patrick Parish, we began to live-stream all of our Sunday and weekday Masses, as well as our presentations and lectures in Aquinas Hall, which were all covered by our annual subscription to BoxCast. The Dominican friars of St. Patrick Priory had also been live-streaming Vespers each day from the Priory Chapel, going back to the early days of the pandemic until a little over a year ago. Many people from both near and far came to enjoy watching liturgies and lectures from St. Patrick’s, and joining in prayer with the friars and the parish. While the friars decided to discontinue the livestreaming of Vespers from their own chapel, there hadn’t been any follow-up discussions in the parish about how much live-streaming was necessary after the pandemic, what events should be live-streamed, or how much should be live-streamed. Since becoming pastor, I’ve brought these questions up with a number of people, from the other friars, to the parish staff, to the pastoral council, and also in conversations with individual parishioners, looking for the best path forward.

While live-streaming is a nice feature to have, it can never replace going to the celebration of Mass in person. The sacraments flow from our belief in the Incarnation – we as human beings are meant to experience them not remotely, but directly and in-person, just as Jesus became man and lived among us. In each sacrament, Christ bestows his grace upon us, but there has to be a real, personal exchange between the minister and the recipient (which is why the sacrament of penance cannot be celebrated over the telephone or through video calls, which was a question that came up during the pandemic). In the most holy Eucharist, Christ comes to us on our altars, and we receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion. These are realities that can never be experienced over a screen. Likewise, in order to build stronger bonds as a parish community, it is important to come to church in person for Mass and other special events, rather than relying on a virtual participation for reasons that are not grave.

After much thought and consultation, I have decided to reduce the amount of live-streaming at St. Patrick’s, to bring us back to our practices before the pandemic. Our parish is not getting rid of live-streaming, but seeking to direct it toward its primary purpose, namely to be a resource and a consolation for those who are homebound and cannot make it to Mass because of illness or caring for a sick person, or who may not want to miss out on our adult catechesis presentations. The following policies on parish live-streaming will be implemented on the first Sunday of October, falling in conjunction with the annual October Mass count:

SUNDAY AND HOLY DAY MASSES

The 10:30am Sunday Mass (and 10:00am holy day Mass) will be live-streamed, primarily for parishioners who are homebound due to long-term illness, those who are recovering after childbirth or surgery, or for those who had an unforeseen medical issue that weekend. An important thing to remember is that this does not replace the Sunday obligation, since the person’s illness or recovery presupposes that he or she has a just cause to miss Mass in the first place. The live-streamed Masses will help those who are unable to get to Mass feel connected with our parish community. Live-streaming the 10:30am Mass (or 10:00am Mass on holy days) seems like a good time in the mid-morning when those who are homebound should be able to watch. The Mass will be a pure “live-stream,” available only on the parish website, and not on our parish Facebook page or YouTube channel, and it will not be archived. Once the Mass concludes, it will no longer be accessible online. The point of watching a live-streamed Mass is to feel connected and unite one’s prayers with a Mass that is happening in real time, and not something that occurred several hours ago.

WEEKDAY MASSES

Weekday Masses will no longer be live-streamed. I know that many parishioners have become accustomed to tuning into the live-streamed weekday Masses to hear the friars’ homilies, and this may be a disappointment for some. However, we also find ourselves coming off the parish phase of the National Eucharistic Revival, which culminated with July’s National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. If one has become accustomed to watching weekday Masses, or listening to a short homily each day, I want to offer a word of encouragement to all our parishioners - can you start coming to Mass on weekdays, and experience the fullness of the Lord’s holy sacrifice, receiving His Body and Blood several times throughout the week?

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic adoration will not be live-streamed, as the purpose of Eucharistic adoration is to adore the Lord exposed on the altar in person, experienced live, and not over a screen. Special liturgies like Advent and Lenten Solemn Vespers, which take place during Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, may still be live-streamed, but the faithful are reminded that this is not the same as Eucharistic adoration in person.

ADULT CATECHESIS PRESENTATIONS

Adult catechesis presentations and other lectures in Aquinas Hall will not be live-streamed, but recorded, and placed on our parish website, Facebook page, and YouTube channel the day after the presentation. Obviously, there may be many reasons why someone would miss one of these presentations (oftentimes, it may be a conflicting event in the parish). Since these events are usually part of a series, we don’t want people to miss out on them. However, we also want people to attend in person, in order to build up our parish community. By recording these presentations and making them available “on demand” the next day, it is my hope to encourage greater participation for these event in person. This will also allow us to build up our parish YouTube channel with more catechetical presentations, which as of now, often get lost within the archive of live-streamed Masses.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Some special parish events will be live-streamed for those unable to attend due to illness or recovery, but like Sunday and holy day Masses, they will not be archived.

WEDDINGS AND FUNERALS

Upon request of the families, weddings and funerals may be live-streamed for those who wish to share a link with those who cannot attend due to illness or distance. Like Sunday Masses, these events will only be available on the parish website, and not on our Facebook page or YouTube channel. However, these will be archived for one week after the event, at which point they will be removed from the parish website.

AQUINAS HALL ON SUNDAYS

Weekend Masses will continue to be simulcast in Aquinas Hall for families with small children who need to step outside of Church for Mass (except the 10:30am Mass when C.C.D. is in session, since the room is being used as a classroom).

In closing, I want to encourage everyone to renew your love and devotion to our Lord in the holy Eucharist, especially in your participation at the Sunday Mass. Nothing replaces the beauty and grandeur of participating in the Mass in person, and it is important to make the Sunday obligation the keystone of your week. The Lord God is our Creator and Redeemer – it is right and just to worship him! If one is sick or recovering and unable to attend Mass, or could risk infecting someone, they should stay home, recognizing that the Sunday obligation is suspended for this just cause. It is also important to remember that work or travel are not just causes for missing Mass on Sundays or holy days; the faithful are to find a time for Mass on these days (which includes anticipated Masses on the evening before) that fits into their work or travel schedule. If travel or some other serious reason would legitimately prohibit one from fulfilling the Sunday and holy day Mass obligation, you should reach out to your pastor (either me, or your own pastor if you belong to another parish) and seek a dispensation from the obligation.

God bless you,

Fr. Paul Marich, O.P.
Pastor

I thought I was too busy to join the Knights of Columbus!

October is here and soon we'll be waving goodbye to fall and saying hello to winter. Like me, you might ask, "Where has this year gone?" We are all so busy with work and family obligations, most of us dare not even consider adding another activity to the schedule. Still, if a task is to be accomplished, it is best to ask someone who is already busy. It is in this light, that we are asking men of faith to join the ranks of the Knights of Columbus. Please prayerfully consider joining the Knights! In our times, the Church struggles to survive within a secular world where the sanctity of life is questioned and religious liberty attacked. The Knights of Columbus, under the guidance of Our Blessed Mother, united through the merits of her Most Holy Rosary, stand as a beacon of hope for Catholic families. Join over 2 million men who are dedicated to the promotion of Catholic causes around the nation and the globe.

The Knights of Columbus are a constant presence in our parish. Our activities strive to promote a sense of community and fraternity while raising funds to support Catholic charities. As a member of the Knights, together we perform many Corporal Works of Mercy. Our local Council, with the generous help of St. Patrick's parishioners, has supported numerous charitable causes, including:

- Pregnancy Decision Health Centers
- Bethesda Healing Ministry
- Sisters for Life
- Greater Columbus Right to Life
- Ultrasound machines for PDHC
- St. Gabriel Catholic Radio
- St. Patrick Church
- St. Patrick Families in need
- Dominican Deserving Poor Boys
- Diocesan TV Masses
- Wounded Warrior Program
- VA Hospital Program
- Catholic MP3 players for troops
- Family Rosary Day
- Developmentally Disabled
- Vacation Bible School
- St. Patrick's Giving Tree
- St. Patrick Youth Group
- March for Life Bus trip donations
- Scholarship program (RSVP) to seminarians
- Food and Coat Drives
- Programs to aid families dealing with illness or unexpected death.

In addition, the St. Patrick's Council facilitates many parish events, such as the annual picnic, supporting our Dominican Sisters, Lenten fish fries, spaghetti dinners, pancake breakfasts, All Saints Day party, ice cream socials, book sales, and receptions honoring priests, deacons, and religious.

Each year, the Knights of Columbus provide generous support, not only to our local priests, but also to the Holy Father. The Order sponsors the Midnight Mass broadcast each Christmas from Rome, and many other activities simply too numerous to enumerate.

Why should you join the Knights of Columbus? In doing so, you will strengthen both your spiritual life and the Church itself, as we work together to build a future filled with hope, values, and ideals for our children.

Please consider joining in the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy through the Knights.

Contact Grand Knight Scott Briley at sbriley@apex-title.com or Deputy Grand Knight Robert McGonigle at Robert@RobertMcGonigle.com.

May God bless and keep you and our parish families.
