BULLETIN DEADLINE: Please submit bulletin items a minimum of one week in advance of publication to office@stpatrickcolumbus.org.

Making a return to the Lord for his great good done for us;
a good start to The Appeal 2024

Dear friends,

In this season of First Holy Communions, ordinations to the priesthood, and anniversaries of ordination, the words of our Psalm today resonate beautifully:

*How shall I make a return to the LORD
for all the good he has done for me?
The cup of salvation I will take up,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.*

In the Gospel passage today, we hear the account of the institution of the Eucharist in the Gospel of Mark, while Jesus was celebrating the Passover meal with his disciples. The cup that Jesus takes up is surely the cup of salvation:

*While they were eating,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, gave it to them, and said,
"Take it; this is my body."
Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them,
and they all drank from it.
He said to them,
"This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many."*

On this Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, it is good to take a little moment of silence to reflect on the great gift that Christ has given us in the Eucharist, truly his body, blood, soul, and divinity. A gift that makes present the very moment of our redemption when the tides of the world were turned from doom to hope; from despair to joy.

Here is a prayer of Saint Thomas Aquinas that expresses the hope, healing, divine strength, and joy that Christ offers us in the Eucharist. This prayer is found on page 1002 of the Lumen Christi Missal in the pews.

*I give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
who have been pleased to nourish me,
a sinner and your unworthy servant,
with the precious Body and Blood of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ:
this through no merits of mine,
but due solely to the graciousness of your mercy.
And I pray that this Holy Communion
may not be for me an offense to be punished,
but a saving plea for forgiveness.
May it be for me the armor of faith,
and the shield of good will.
May it cancel my faults,
destroy concupiscence and carnal passion,
increase charity and patience, humility and obedience
and all the virtues,
may it be a firm defense against the snares of all my enemies,*

*both visible and invisible,
the complete calming of my impulses,
both of the flesh and of the spirit,
a firm adherence to you, the one true God,
and the joyful completion of my life's course.
And I beseech you to lead me, a sinner,
to that banquet beyond all telling,
where with your Son and the Holy Spirit
you are the true light of your Saints, fullness of satisfied desire, eternal gladness,
consummate delight and perfect happiness.
Through Christ our Lord.*

Blessings to you on this beautiful feast!

We are off to a great start in pledges for The Appeal 2024!
At the time of this writing, our total pledges at St. Patrick total $68,694, which is nearly halfway to our parish goal of $153,636.

We can never repay the Lord for the infinite mercy and divine life that flows to us from his Sacred Heart, but we can show our generosity to him in our brothers and sisters, especially those who represent Christ and those who need a deeper relationship with Christ. Here are some specific ways The Appeal helps us do this:

- Diocesan evangelization initiatives focused on education and formation
- Tuition assistance for children attending Catholic schools and teacher formation
- Education and advocating for life and human dignity
- Coordinating and supporting chaplaincy in hospitals, prisons, and Catholic Schools
- Formation and education of future priests and deacons
- Marriage preparation courses
- Staffing in social outreach facilities that are helping thousands of our brothers and sisters through some of the toughest times of their lives

As always, 100% of funds received over our parish goal will be refunded to St. Patrick Parish, which help us pay for important capital projects for our church and parish center, especially the roof of our parish center and our ongoing project of switching over to LED lighting in the church and better illumination of the sacred art in the church.

To those of you who have already made a pledge, thank you! If you have not yet made a pledge, please prayerfully consider what you can give, and complete one of the pledge envelopes in the pews. Whatever your pledge, thank you for the many sacrifices you make for the sake of our wonderful St. Patrick Parish!

Peace,

Fr. Stephen, O.P.

HOSPITALITY MINISTRY

To make St. Patrick's an even more welcoming parish, the parish is implementing its new hospitality ministry beginning June 1. Thank you to the 15 parishioners who comprise our initial Hospitality team. Hospitality volunteers will initially be at the Church Gallery before and after the weekend Masses and will wear identifying "Hospitality" badges.

Hospitality volunteers will welcome our parishioners and guests; answer questions regarding the parish, its facilities, Mass at St. Patrick's, parish/CCD registration, etc.; and will enhance parish security by identifying and reporting any suspicious individuals or behavior.

An additional 10-15 Hospitality volunteers are still needed to ensure all shifts are covered. Scheduling is flexible. If interested in joining the Hospitality Ministry team or serving as a Hall Monitor for next year's CCD program, contact Mike Melliore, Sr. at 614-214-7179.

CONFRATERNITY OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

The St. Patrick Church Charter of the Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary has begun to meet regularly. Our mission is to deepen our faith and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary through the prayerful recitation of the Rosary.

We aim to foster a vibrant community of prayer, reflection, and spiritual growth, while promoting the Rosary's transformative power in our lives and our communities. We commit to supporting one another in our spiritual journey, spreading devotion to the Rosary, and embodying Mary's virtues in our actions and outreach. We are inviting everyone to join us on this spiritual journey. We meet every third Thursday at 7:00 p.m. in Kolbe Room on the second floor. Our next meeting will be June 20.

For more information, please contact Beth Atkinson at bethatkinson@msn.com or call 740-404-1913 (cell).

An Experience of Hope
Post-abortion Support Group

There are no words to describe the loss and sorrow for the mothers of aborted babies. Group meetings are a most important place to find understanding and comfort. As we begin to draw strength from understanding, we can then begin to share with one another. This provides hope and encouragement needed for mothers of aborted children to begin to accept the greatest gift of all... God's Mercy. An Experience of Hope is a confidential, safe place, providing support, prayer, hope, and reconciliation in the context of spiritual renewal.

Date: June 19 (continuing 3rd Weds. of the month)

Time: 12:30-2:15 p.m.

Location: St. Patrick Parish Library

Bring: Sack lunch, bottle of water, notebook, and pen
