From the Desk of the Pastor

This past week, thousands of Catholics gathered in Indianapolis for the National Eucharistic Congress. Many from our parish have made the trip to the Congress, and the Diocese of Columbus was blessed a few weeks ago to have the Seton Route of the National Eucharistic Procession pass through, with special Masses and Eucharistic processions at a number of our parishes.

At St. Patrick Parish, the past year has been an opportunity to grow in our love for our Eucharistic Lord, especially through more times of Eucharistic Adoration, and several adult catechesis presentations on the Eucharist. As this second year of the National Eucharistic Revival concludes, which has been the parish phase of the Revival, I encourage parishioners – from those who have been here for years, to those who are new – to think about ways we can continue to deepen our love for the Eucharist. The parish phase of the Revival shouldn't end here, but should just be starting! Here are a few suggestions for how we can deepen our devotion to the Eucharist:

Daily Mass: Besides our regular Sunday Masses, our parish has Mass every weekday at 7:00 a.m., as well at 11:45 a.m. on Monday-Friday. If you can't make it to Mass every day, would you consider coming downtown for Mass at least once during the week, in order to deepen your love and reliance on Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament? If you can make it more than once, even better!

Eucharistic Adoration: Our parish has a Eucharistic holy hour every Friday from 12:15-1:15 p.m., concluding with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. We also have All-night Eucharistic Adoration on the third Friday of the month (praying for life), and the fourth Friday of the month (praying for vocations). I realize that these times are not the most convenient for a number of our parishioners, especially those with young families. One of my goals as pastor is to look for opportunities for increased Eucharistic Adoration during the week. In the meantime, would you consider coming for an hour during the times of Adoration that we already have, particularly on third and fourth Fridays?

As a way to deepen our devotion to the Eucharist, I have decided to conclude both of these all-night vigils of Eucharistic Adoration with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 6:45 a.m. on their respective Saturday mornings (rather than close with simple reposition, which had been our practice). This will allow us to experience the full grandeur of the Church's liturgy when it comes to Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Decorum and Silence: When we enter the church, we are entering the holy temple of God; Jesus is present, and He calls us to prayer and worship. This means that when we come to church, we are dressed appropriately, presenting ourselves before the Lord in a worthy manner. We mustn't be dressed for some recreational activity, nor in a way that is disrespectful or degrading to the body.

While the time before Mass has typically been silent, with some time for the prelude music to lift our hearts in prayer, it can often be rather noisy leaving church. It's one thing if a child is seeking the attention of a parent after a long Mass. It's another thing if we are carrying on full-voiced conversations as we depart church. I invite and encourage our parishioners to depart the church in silence, allowing the postlude music to keep us in a prayerful disposition as we go out from our church to proclaim Christ to a hungry world. When we reach the Gallery, it is then that we can greet our fellow parishioners and share in appropriate fellowship.

As the parish phase of the Eucharistic Revival concludes, we now enter the third year: missionary sending. As we receive our Lord each week in the Eucharist, we are then sent forth as witnesses of Christ. May this next year be a way for us to discern how the Lord wants us to serve His Church and proclaim His Word, all the while carrying our Eucharistic Lord within our hearts.

God bless you,
Fr. Paul, O.P.

CORRECTION ON FR. PAUL'S CONTACT INFORMATION

Please note that recent bulletin covers have listed Fr. Paul's contact information incorrectly. His correct email address is: frpaulmarich@stpatrickcolumbus.org, and his office phone number is (614) 240-5917. Please be sure to update your contact information. He also requests to be addressed as "Fr. Paul" (which is in keeping with the traditional style of address for priests from religious orders), and not "Fr. Marich" (which would be the usual style of address for diocesan priests).

All first-time parents anticipating the birth of a child in the next months are asked to call the Parish Office now to schedule a Baptism Class. Next Class: August 14, 2024, at 7:00 p.m.

WEEKDAY PARISH DEVOTIONAL UPDATES

As of Monday, July 1st, we have begun praying the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel after all weekday Masses. After the priest gives the final blessing, he goes to reverence the altar, and begins the prayer before genuflecting and leaving the sanctuary. Additionally, the praying of the Angelus/Regina Caeli before Mass, already practiced before the 7:00 a.m. Mass, has been extended to the 11:45 a.m. Mass. Cards with these prayers are available in the pews, so that the faithful can use a consistent version of these prayers in common. The Novena to St. Margaret of Castello will continue to be prayed after each Mass on Wednesdays and will follow the prayer to St. Michael. The faithful are also reminded that the Rosary is prayed in common each day after the 7:00 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. Masses. On Fridays, the Eucharistic Holy Hour is held from 12:15 p.m.-1:15 p.m.

LITTLE FLOWER SHOWERS

Little Flower Showers is a St. Patrick Church's Women's Pro-Life Ministry, dedicated to celebrating the gift of life with moms-to-be through our special baby shower events. Our mission is to support and uplift mothers by providing them with the love, encouragement, and resources they need as they prepare to welcome their new babies. For more information on donations and how to get involved, contact Wei Kozlowski at 614-439-3033 or email her at Wei@sinokoz.com.

Catholic in Recovery

CATHOLIC IN RECOVERY

Wednesdays, 7:30-8:30 p.m. –
St. Patrick's Library. Catholic

in Recovery invites you to join us for our weekly meeting at St. Patrick Church. We meet every Wednesday evening from 7:30-8:30 p.m. and welcome all Catholics who are interested in recovery from addiction and deepening their relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. Our program integrates the 12 steps of recovery with the sacraments of our Catholic Church. If you struggle with alcohol, drugs, food, gambling, pornography, or sex, please join us for a safe place to work through your recovery. We also want to welcome those who have friends and family struggling with addiction issues. If you have questions, please contact Jon Weaver at 614-588-4022 or circolumbus@gmail.com. For more information, visit www.catholicinrecovery.com.

If you cannot meet on Wednesdays, please join us at St. Peter Church, 6899 Smoky Row Road, Columbus, OH 43235 on Monday evenings from 8:00-9:00 p.m.

HOSPITALITY MINISTRY

To make St. Patrick's an even more welcoming parish, we have implemented our new Hospitality Ministry. Thank you to the 15 parishioners who comprise our initial Hospitality Team. An additional 10-15 Hospitality volunteers are still needed to ensure all shifts are covered. Scheduling is flexible. If interested in joining the Hospitality Ministry team or serving as a Hall Monitor for next year's CCD program, contact Mike Melliere, Sr. at 614-214-7179.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

The final number is in for World's Largest Diaper Drive 2024, and we did it! With your help, we "blew out" our goal to collect 1 million donated diapers during the month of May by collecting

1.1 million diapers! This is an incredible accomplishment when you think that Bottoms Up started with just 80 diapers in 2018. Bottoms Up Diaper Bank thanks St. Patrick Parish for your generous support of our mission to keep babies in the community clean, dry, and healthy. Thank you, and God bless.

AN EXPERIENCE OF HOPE

POST-ABORTION SUPPORT GROUP

There are no words to describe the loss and sorrow for the mothers of aborted babies. Group meetings are a most important place to find understanding and comfort. As we begin to draw strength from understanding, we can then begin to share with one another. This provides hope and encouragement needed for mothers of aborted children to begin to accept the greatest gift of all... God's Mercy. An Experience of Hope is a confidential, safe place, providing support, prayer, hope, and reconciliation in the context of spiritual renewal. Date: Every third Wednesday of the month. Time: 12:30-2:15 p.m. Location: St. Patrick Parish Library. Bring: Sack lunch, bottle of water, notebook, and pen.

Questions? Judy Schlueter, RN, MAPC at 614-537-6452.

BECOMING CATHOLIC

Do you know someone not baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who might be asking what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone who is already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation and Communion? The time might be right for them to become fully initiated. The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is a place to ask questions and seek understanding. If interested, please contact Fr. Albert Dempsey, O.P. at fralbert@stpatrikcolumbus.org or 614-240-5919.

CONFRATERNITY OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

Join The Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary at St. Patrick Church.

Our mission is to deepen our faith and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary through the prayerful recitation of the Rosary. We aim to foster a vibrant community of prayer, reflection, and spiritual growth, while promoting the Rosary's transformative power in our lives and our communities. We commit to supporting one another in our spiritual journey, spreading devotion to the Rosary, and embodying Mary's virtues in our actions and outreach.

We invite all parishioners to join us on this spiritual journey. Our meetings are held on the third Thursday of every month at 7:00 p.m. in the Kolbe Room on the second floor of St. Patrick Church.

To receive news and emails, please sign up for the Flocknote Rosary Confraternity group.

For more information, please contact Beth Atkinson at bethatkinson@msn.com or call 740-404-1913.
