

Come to the Supper of the Lamb. Bring Christ to a Hungry World.

You truly go the extra mile for St. Patrick!

This is evident in the parish response to our recent annual stewardship outreach. THANK YOU! I am humbled and grateful for your commitment to St. Patrick Church, especially during challenging times. Through your commitment, our parish remains a vibrant, spiritual home where you are formed as disciples to bring Christ to a world hungry for the truth given in love.

God's work is never done! Your prayerful response both materially and spiritually is setting the groundwork for a path forward as we plan for the future of our parish, the continuation of critical ministries, and new opportunities in line with our mission. St. Patrick Church continues to grow as a strong, faith-filled stewardship community because of parishioners like you!

I thank you for your generosity already so clearly shown and your commitment to the St. Patrick's that you love so much.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Alcott, O.P.

As St. Dominic brought his friars together to encounter Christ in prayer, study, and community and then to hand on the fruits of this encounter to others through preaching, St. Patrick parish—like St. Patrick himself as a missionary in Ireland—seeks to make known the gift of God and his eternal consolation, by welcoming Catholics from far and near to encounter Christ in the Supper of the Lamb and in the saving truth of our Catholic faith, so that we can hand on what we have received to a world hungry for his truth given in love.
